

NAWEA 2013 Symposium Boulder, CO

NORTH AMERICAN WIND ENERGY ACADEMY

Session Speaker

Mark Ahlstrom, Wind Logics

Evolution of Forecasting, Operations and Market Design for Wind Integration

Mark has been the CEO of WindLogics since December of 2000. Under his leadership, the company became an authority in the assessment, forecasting, operations and integration of renewable energy.

WindLogics became a subsidiary of NextEra Energy Resources (formerly FPL Energy) in 2006, allowing it to expand its role as an applied R&D center and provider of services to utility, wind and solar energy clients.

Prior to joining WindLogics, Mark was founder of two software technology companies. He holds degrees in Biochemistry and Biomedical Engineering from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
